

Shrek

At first glance, Shrek might appear to be a big green terrifying ogre. But there's much more to Shrek than meets the eye. He may look scary, but really he's a kind ogre with a very big heart. He used to live alone in a swamp but all that changed when he met Princess Fiona. They had a lot more in common than they first realized. Shrek loves nature and especially his swamp home. He gives it all up when he marries Fiona and moves to Far Far Away.

Best friend: Donkey

Relationship with: Fiona
