

Donkey

This hip-talking, fast-walking, happy-go-lucky donkey meets Shrek almost by accident, and Shrek's whole world becomes a lot louder! Donkey loves to be involved in everything and though he may not admit it, Shrek couldn't live without him. Donkey's positive energy and ever-optimistic outlook on life is the perfect complement to Shrek's often grumpy exterior. Now that Donkey is a dad, maybe he'll calm down - or maybe not! Despite wanting to spend time with his family, he is always up for an adventure.
